COUNCIL PLANS TO CHANGE CLASS

Definite Action Moving City Into
Fourth Class and Increasing Salaries
Deferred 2 Weeks

TWO CONTRACTS AWARDED

Bids on Memorial Park Boulevard
Opened, But Letting is Delayed
Due to Injunction Suit

Considerable business marked the regular session of the city council Tuesday night, including the awarding of two contracts and opening of bids on the construction of Memorial Park boulevard.

A discussion on the proposed change of the classification of the city from fifth to fourth class showed a unanimous decision on the part of the council to make the change, and definite action was delayed until the next meeting, June 17.

Warner Wyatt was named as a member on the city school board, and will serve for another three years. Last night was the time set for receiving bids on the construction of a sidewalk, curb and gutter in North Sexton street, from Ninth to Eleventh, and two bids were submitted. The contract was awarded to A. R. Horkless for a total of $1,175.60. The other bid was submitted by Clarence and Lawrence Pica, and was $2.50 higher than the bid accepted.

Several attempts were made in the last year to award this small contract, but either the faulty bids or advertising has prevented the work from being done.

The councilmen also entered into a contract with the Conveyors Corporation of America, Chicago, Ill., for the construction of an ash conveyor at the city water and light plant for $1,391.50. Bids on the equipment were received a month ago, when several firms submitted prices, and the decision was reached last night.

Bids on the construction of the boulevard around Memorial park were opened, and two firms offered estimates. The Andrews Asphalt Paving Company of Hamilton, contractors on Morgan street, offered a bid for $17,728.65, which was above the estimate, and was rejected. The other bid was submitted by the Cromwell-Stone company of Hamilton for $12,994.55.

The council voted to construct the new roadway with the penetration type, which is similar to asphalt, and action on the contract with the firm was deferred until after an injunction suit can be heard June 13 in court.

The financial condition of the city shows a prosperous bank account, according to the financial statement submitted to the council for auditing by Earl Conway, city treasurer.

The report shows that the city has on hand a total of $50,211.44 from all funds and this sum is deposited in local banks. The big distribution of these funds are in the

SCHOOL FUND LOANS TOTAL $134,137.02

Annual Report on Common, Congressional and Permanent Endowment Funds is Made

$2,325.79 ADDED DURING YEAR

Rush county has a total of $134,137.02 in school funds loaned on Rush county real estate and drawing interest regularly, it is revealed in the annual report on the common, congressional and permanent endowment school funds, just completed at the county auditor's office.

The report is for the fiscal year beginning June 1, 1923 and ending May 31, 1924. It shows that the common school fund received $2,325.79 during the year from the following sources: State of Indiana, $1,240.79; justice of peace fees, $4.00; fines in mayor's court, $562.60; fines in circuit court $519.00.

Money in the common school fund at the beginning of the fiscal year amounted to $103,550.48, the congressional, $23,889.32, and the permanent endowment $6,706.22, including $36.66 which was received from the state during the year.

COMPROMISE ON THE KLAN PLANK

Party Harmony and Optimism Apparent as Democratic Hosts Gather for State Convention

KLAN NOT TO BE MENTIONED

Reference to it Will be Anti-Klan in Sentiment—Ralston Opposes Endorsement

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Party harmony and optimism over the outlook for the campaign, prevailed as hundreds of delegates gathered here today for the democratic state convention which opens tomorrow morning in Tomlinson hall.

With the troublesome klan plank apparently disposed of to the satisfaction of all, faction leaders were hopeful that the convention would not be marred by injection of issues other than those of state government.

A plank which will not mention the klan by name, but which will be anti-klan in sentiment, is ready for inclusion in the platform, it was said. The plank charges that the republican party sought to inject the klan issue into the campaign to "detract attention from the record of the republican administration."

The lobby of the Claypool hotel was a whirlpool of humanity and on "candidate row" on the eighth floor the crowd was jammed down every corridor.

Senator Samuel M. Ralston today discouraged efforts of Indiana Democrats to launch a formal boom for his nomination for the presidency.

He opposed a move to get the state convention to endorse him for the nomination after a resolution had been drawn up by his friends ready to present on the floor of the convention.

Ralston declared he is not a candidate for the Democratic nomination, that he is building up no organization and seeking to pledge no

POLICE HEAD WITNESS IN TRIAL OF WOMAN

Mrs. Elda Gibbs Simmermeyer of Connersville Charged With Slaying
Her Husband

ACCUSED WOMAN HYSTERICAL

(By United Press)

Connersville, Ind., June 4—Everett Ketchum, chief of police, was the first witness called by the state today in the trial of Mrs. Elda Gibbs Simmermeyer, 28, charged with the murder of her husband, John J. Simmermeyer, 33.

Ketchum testified as to the surroundings in the Simmermeyer home when he was called to the house after the shooting.

Neighbors of the Simmermeyers were to testify regarding the domestic affairs of the couple and Coroner Robert Porter told of depositions taken from the accused woman while investigating the death of Simmermeyer.

The jury for the trial was selected late yesterday. Eight of the members are Connersville business men and four are farmers. Examination of witnesses proceeded slowly today.

Hysterically weeping at times and at times staring vacantly at the floor of the court room, Mrs. Simmermeyer sat throughout the court proceedings. On her lap she held the youngest of her three children.

BROOKHART LEADS IN RACE

Iowa Senator Pulis Away From Opponent in Primary Count

Des Moines, Ia., June 4—United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart defeated Burton E. Sweet for the Republican senatorial nomination in Iowa, last returns on the face of nearly complete returns from Monday's primary election.

Brookhart early today had pulled away from Sweet to a majority of more than 30,000 votes. Returns from 2,322 precincts of the 2,412 in the state gave Brookhart 188,341 and Sweet 157,921.

The remaining precincts to be heard from are largely in the rural communities and are expected to swell Brookhart's lead rather than subtract from it.

CLOSE TO 1,000 AT STATE ENCAMPMENT

Monster Parade of Annual G. A. R.
Meeting And Campfire Scheduled
For Today at Frankfort

OLDEST VETERAN LOCAL MAN

(By United Press)

Frankfort, Ind., June 4—With nearly 1,000 delegates in attendance the forty-fifth annual encampment of the G. A. R. went into its first business sessions here today.

A luncheon was served by the local Kiwanis club at noon. Every veteran attended.

A monster parade was to be held this afternoon, followed by the annual campfire in Howard Hall, tonight.

Ideal weather prevailed today after a wet opening day, bidding fair to make the parade this afternoon colorful and spectacular.

The entire town is dressed up, miles of bunting being displayed and signs of welcome in evidence everywhere.

Distinguished visitors in attendance, are Nat. commander-in-chief, Gaylor Satzgarber, VanWert O., and National Commander Quinn of the American Legion. Both will take part in the parade this afternoon and deliver addresses at the campfire in Howard Hall tonight.

The Frankfort dispatch contained a paragraph to the effect that the oldest veteran present was Uriah Gassaway, 97, of Rushville, who served in the Mexican and Civil wars. Local G. A. R. records do not reveal the name of Gassaway or one like it, and no one here knows a man of that name, so far as could be learned today.

STATE SCORES IN TRIAL

of Police Slayer

Shelbyville, Ind., June 4—The prosecution scored here today in the trial of Charles Henry, colored, charged with the murder of Jesse Louden, Indianapolis policeman.

A signed statement of Pauline Primm, 16, which had been fought bitterly by the defense, was admitted as evidence, after the defense concluded introduction of witnesses. Closing arguments were started late today with prospects of the case going to the jurors late tomorrow.

Admission by State's Attorney That Leopold and Loeb Were not on

POSITIVE EVIDENCE NEEDED

Crowe Says State Places its Chief
Reliance in Witnesses Who Heard
Incriminating Statements

(By United Press)

Chicago, June 4—The state, in its attempt to hang Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks, must depend upon positive evidence of the crime, Clarence Darrow, chief attorney for the defense of the two boys, told the United Press today.

Darrow, who heads the $15,000,000 legal staff retained by the millionaire parents of Leopold and Loeb, said he was "interested" in a statement made by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, admitting the state had no signed confession of the murder.

Although declaring his belief that the state's attorney might "spring some surprise on us yet," Darrow indicated that if it were true no signed confession is in the hands of the prosecution, the defense would be strengthened considerably.

In admitting that Leopold and Loeb never signed admission of the crime, Crowe said stenographers who took notes on the boys' statements, would testify for the state, thus taking the place of signed confession.

"A confession as an instrument in itself means nothing anyway," Crowe said. "It might very easily be ruled out by a trial judge. It is in witnesses to incriminating statements made by the boys that the

HAVE SUBSTITUTE FOR M'NARY-HAUGEN BILL

House Republican Leaders Lay Another Measure Before Coolidge
in Place of Defeated Bill

ARE PREPARING TO ADJOURN

(By United Press)

Washington, June 4—House republican leaders today laid before President Coolidge a substitute farm relief measure to take the place of the defeated McNary-Haugen bill on which they asked his opinion.

The new measure would utilize the resources of the war finance corporation to finance expert marketing of farm product surpluses.

Congress today settled down to dispose of a few contentious issues, pass necessary appropriation bills and then scatter to the country Saturday night.

The senate, having concurred in the house resolution to adjourn at 7 p. m., June 7 during the next four days probably will engage in a test vote on the Muscle Shoals question, take up the $150,000,000 naval construction program, pass one or two supply bills and dispose of whatever the house sends it.

The house has on its program only an appropriation bill, the reclamation bill recommended by the department of interior which may be attached as a rider to the appropriation bill and the possible addition of a substitute farm bill, which farm bloc leaders are believed to have agreed on to replace the defeated McNary-Haugen bill.

Rushville Has Reason to Take Pride in I. & C. Accomplishment. Technical Press Editor Says

SPENDS WEEK ON THE LINE

Charles Gordon of Electrical Railway
Journal Collects Data For Article on Engineering Feat

Charles Gordon, western editor of the Electric Railway Journal, has spent a week going over the new equipment which is being put in by the I. & C. Traction Company, and has been collecting information for an extensive article in the technical press describing the new developments on the traction system. Mr. Gordon was the guest of Superintendent Baxter at the Kiwanis Club luncheon last Thursday.

Discussing the significance of this important change on the railway system, Mr. Gordon stated that Rushville had good cause to be proud of the native Indiana grit that had made this important improvement possible in the face of heavy engineering and financial odds.

"One thing," said Mr. Gordon in reply to questions from a Daily Republican representative, "that the people of this community should not overlook, is the fact that an entire new type electrical power system has been put in without interrupting the operation of the road. In this day of outstanding engineering accomplishments, the man on the street has become accustomed to accepting as a matter of course developments which a few years would have been deemed impossible. Sometimes these things occur under our very eyes and are given only passing interest."

"In many respects this new system of the I. & C. road should attract the interest of every resident of this community. The new system includes a series of direct current stations which automatically start up and shut down, as required by the operation of cars over the line. These stations are so ingeniously designed that they almost seem to think. They have been put into operation step by step and the new power gradually extended while the old cars were continued in operation. Bad weather has been encountered, but the work was pushed forward and today the citizens of Rushville may justly be proud of the success accomplished."

Now that the new automatic direct current system has been adopted and put in operation, conditions for entering Cincinnati have reached a point where the long desired extension to that city seems to be again in sight. As the plans of the road to extend to Cincinnati are finally carried out, Rushville will find itself on an important high speed electric

Indianapolis Lady Says Medicine Has Overcome Nervousness And Sick Headaches

"Tanlac has increased my weight from 115 to 150 pounds and made me so well and happy that I just feel like singing for joy," is the enthusiastic statement of Mrs. W. E. Schobert, 246 W. Bakemeyer St., Indianapolis, Ind.

"The change in me is perfectly wonderful! Why, three months ago, my appetite was so poor I hardly cared to eat anything, my nerves were all unstrung and I was feeling woefully weak and run-down. Bilious attacks, severe headaches, dizziness, and sleeplessness were also troubling me; sometimes I ached from head to feet, and everything I took to relieve my troubles seemed to aggravate them instead.

"But not so with Tanlac. It gave me complete relief and now I eat fine, sleep fine and feel fine and am simply delighted with the strength and energy it has brought me. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine.

MOVIES

"Lorna Doone" At Castle

Heralded by critics throughout the country as Maurice Tourneur's "greatest masterpiece" and a "thrilling dramatic spectacle of unrivalled beauty," "Lorna Doone" will open at the Castle theatre today.

Tourneur's fictionization of Blackmore's famous novel has attracted world-wide attention and for once the critics have forgotten to complain that "the picture is nothing like the book." While the novel has been decidedly condensed in the film version, all the main dramatic episodes which have made the book a "best-seller" for three generations have been retained and the spirit of the times has been faithfully reproduced.

Madge Bellamy, endeared to the public by her splendid work in Thomas H. Ince's "Hail the Woman" plays the title role. With her beauty and undeniable charm, she should be ideal in the part of the gentle "captive maid of Exmoor." John Bowers, one of the biggest men physically of the screen, has been appropriately cast for the role of "John Ridd," Lorna's lover who was the "strongest man in Devonshire." Frank Keenan plays the regal old outlaw chief, "Sir Ensor Doone," with Donald MacDonald as the villainous "Carver Doone," who meets such a horrible death in a quagmire.

This is a benefit show given by the Always Present Class of the Main Street Christian Church. The Crinoline Chorus girls will sing.

Strenuous efforts on the part of the management and men of the interurban company to inaugurate the new automatic direct current operating system on Memorial Day were crowned with success.

When this road was originally opened in 1905, it adopted the single-phase power system, which at that time promised to be the most advantageous method of operation. The new system attracted the attention of technical men all over the world, and for many years Rushville was visited by delegations of experts from almost every civilized country. During recent years, however, it became evident that the trend of engineering development had so favored the direct current system that important operating economies and improvement in service could only be obtained by changing over the road to the direct current system.

Difficulties encountered in making the contemplated extension to Cincinnati, high cost of materials during the war and finally the advent of the automobile and the bus, presented a series of physical and financial obstacles in the path of the desired change, that would have sickened the heart of many a railway manager. Mr. Gordon pointed out.

"But not so with President Charles L. Henry" he added. "As difficulties piled up, the determination to improve the service, and at the same time ultimately vindicate the faith of the many investors who put money into the road, seems to have increased. In the face of many who said the feat was a financial impossibility, the road has succeeded in borrowing almost a million dollars for improvements which are expected to make savings sufficient to more than pay the total annual charges."

The B. Y. P. U. of the Second Baptist church will give a social in the basement of the church Thursday. A chicken supper will be served at five o'clock.

Mysteries Of The Ancients

The Department of Agriculture of Egypt has seeds which were found in age-proof containers in the tomb of king Tutankhamen which they will endeavor to propagate at their Agricultural Research Laboratories. These seeds may represent herbs containing medicinal properties that this age and generation knows not of. It was the simple roots and herbs of the field that half a century ago produced Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a remedy that has never been equalled in overcoming ailments peculiar to women.

SPLIT SEEN ON G. O. P. PLATFORM

President Coolidge And Republican Leaders Will Divide Opinions Over Issues

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE UP

United Press Writer Says Questions of Taxes, Immigration and World Court Are Contentions

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 4—The Republican platform of 1924 is the rock on which President Coolidge and Republican leaders in congress are finally going to split.

The seeming accord which has been preserved between the White House and the capitol, despite rude jabs of the bonus, tax bill, immigration question and world court, is definitely scheduled to dissolve on this question.

Coolidge managers insist upon the president's virtually writing his own platform. Senate Republicans, a score of whom are up for re-election, believe that if he is permitted to dictate it, he alone can stand on it.

A short, direct statement of principles is what the Coolidge managers desire, plainly outlining the president's program for the future. This, however, senators believe, would show them in direct conflict with Mr. Coolidge because of their votes on legislation in the present congress.

They want the platform to be a tent big enough to cover them as well as the president—not one which will bring into bold relief the differences which exist between congress and the White House.

The president however, virtually will name the platform committee insuring planks representing his views. Such stalwarts as Watson and Lodge, who have been platform moulders in the past, will have little voice in the proceedings. Lodge may not even be a member.

LaFollette principles will find no place in the platform. Coolidge managers are prepared to "steam roller" any suggestions made by the supporters of the Wisconsin senator but they cannot prevent his state delegation from making a minority report embodying their ideas.

This is all the LaFollette people expect to do at Cleveland. For their purposes, it will be enough.

TWO BOYS SIGNED NO CONFESSIONS

state places its chief reliance." Crowe said he would summon all possible witnesses before the grand jury, disregarding the usual custom of holding back "surprise witnesses" for the actual trial.

"We are going to get together all the evidence possible now," he said. If any witness refuses to testify at the trial, we will have the record of his testimony before the grand jury to take its place. If any witness changes his story in any essential detail when the trial gets under way, we will prosecute the witness for perjury."

Leopold and Loeb were adapting themselves today to the routine of prison life. They took their prescribed "setting up" exercises and attended the prison school. In their cells they spent most of the time reading magazines.

Allen M. Loeb, business man from Seattle, a brother of Richard Loeb, arrived from the west today and called immediately at the jail. Because he was from another city, Loeb was allowed to visit his brother despite the fact it was not a visiting day.

While waiting in an anti-room, Loeb glanced casually through a hook which he found on a table. It contained a long list of names, each followed by a certain date. Curious to know the meaning of the list, Loeb glanced at the heading.

"Public executions in the state of Illinois," appeared in bold type at the top of the page. Eighty-five names were listed, dating from 1840. "A ghastly thing to have around here," Loeb said, and quickly closed the book.

Loeb refused to make any statement concerning the case.

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, after hovering awhile awaiting their commander, flew on from Kagoshima and arrived at Shanghai without mishap.

The American consul is understood to have sent an engineer to provide Lieut. Smith with all possible assistance in making necessary repairs to his plane and it was hoped the flight commander would catch up with his comrades here tomorrow.

CONFINED TO BED
Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weakness."

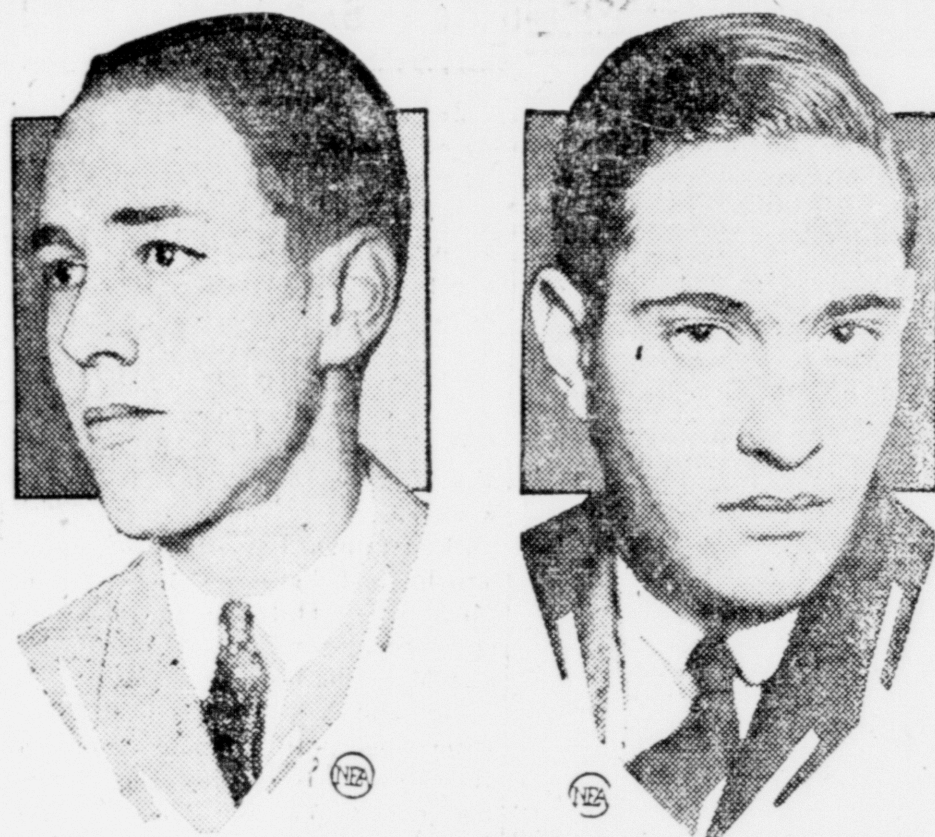

"I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it."

"About four years ago, a change of life came on me. . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal."

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life."

BEE INDUSTRY SHOWS DULL EARLY SEASON

Most Retarded Since The State Department Was Established Twenty-Eight Years Ago

CLOVER HONEY LOOKS GOOD

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Extremes are the rule in the bee industry in Indiana this year according to C. O. Yost, chief apary inspector, of the Department of Conservation. The bee season is the most retarded since the department was established twenty-eight years ago.

But the outlook for clover honey this year is the best in years, Yost says.

The bees are strong and hardy and the clover crop which was abundant last year will be as large this year, according to Yost.

A series of apary demonstrations and bee tours have been planned for the early part of this month which Yost will attend, to give demonstrations and lectures on the proper management of apiaries and the proper raising of bees.

The Sullivan County Beekeepers convention was held in Shelbyville Sunday.

The annual Vigo County Beekeepers convention opened here today and last until Thursday. All the apiaries will be visited and demonstrations on the proper handling of bees will be given by Yost.

Noble County beekeepers will make a similar tour on June 6.

A tour of Wabash County will be held June 16.

High Winds Blow Onion Seed Out of the Ground

Wolf Lake, Ind., June 4—Onion growers of north central Indiana during the last few weeks suffered losses that will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars as a result of their seed literally being blown out of the ground by high winds.

It is estimated by many extensive growers that from one fourth to one-fifth of the seed sown this spring has been blown out.

Many growers are resowing their seed, but others are placed at a great disadvantage in not being able to procure seed.

Whole fields of onions recently planted in the vicinity of Monquet, Kosciusko county, have been literally ruined by high winds blowing the seed from the ground. A similar situation has been experienced in Steuben, Whitley, Starke, Fulton, Marshall and other counties.

Strawberries Not Damaged

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Late spring freezes, frosts and rains have curbed production of some varieties of fruits and vegetables in Indiana, but the strawberry crop is going to come through with a record this year, according to George C. Bryant, agricultural statistician, and Frank N. Wallace state entomologist who have made a personal survey of conditions.

Only small raspberry, blackberry, current, and gooseberry crops are in prospect, they report. A small peach crop was also forecast, but other fruits have not been affected by the winter chill.

Mellon planting activities are greatly delayed.

Rushville Tax Rate Law

Regardless of talk that Rushville
people are hearing these days about high taxes, the average person does not realize how cheaply it is to live here.

Last year Rushville was sixth in the list in Indiana for low taxes,
and every neighboring city had considerably higher rates. This year,
the state has not prepared the list
showing a comparison of the cities,
but it is a safe guess that Rushville
will rank well up in the list, as having a low rate.

This year the rate in Rushville is
$2.35, and last year it was $2.37.
The city administration, which regulates these rates, has assured the people of Rushville that the rates
will be lower even next year, in face
of the talk and remonstrances to bond issues.

With Rushville citizens paying
$2.35 on the hundred dollars this year, the following cities may be a comparison, and those who remonstrate against the so-called high taxes, should think twice.

	1923	1924
Greensburg	3.11	3.10
Newcastle	2.73	2.66
Knightstown	2.685	2.45
Seymour	3.04	2.96
Ft. Wayne	2.27	2.38
Franklin	2.49	2.49
Connersville	3.15	3.27
Rushville	2.37	2.35

The present administration has under consideration a $30,000 bond issue for improvements and for the payment of notes on which seven per cent interest is being paid. Some citizens, who term the bond issue as unnecessary, and who have filed a remonstrance against the issue, are doing so with the intent of lowering
the tax rate, while in reality the rate
will be increased, because if the money for improvements is not raised by a bond issue, it will have to be borrowed at 7 percent, because the city council intends to make the improvements.

It is much cheaper to borrow money
on bonds at 5 percent, retiring the bonds in $2,000 amounts each year,
than to meet a debt with 7 percent
interest each six months.

Improvements are necessary. The city hall, which seems to be the bone of contention, must be re-roofed within the next few weeks, or else the bedbugs which infest the place, will be drowned. The councilmen have extended a hearty welcome to taxpayers to come down
and look over the situation, before
they condemn the bond issue.

Farm Price Index Up

Agriculture as a whole now stands
to gain the greatest economic leverage since 1919, due to the slackening urban demand for industrial products, which may be expected to result in some easing down in wages
and prices of things that farmers
buy.

This is the conclusion of the department of agriculture June review.
It is the work of experts and is built
largely on theory, but even theory
some times works out in practice,
and everyone is hoping that a brighter time for agriculture is just around

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY B. HUNT
NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—“The
Democrats, if they are wise,
will put the man they want to be president in the second place on
their ticket—provided, of course,
that he is a real, honest-to-John,
upstanding, progressive sort of
gent.”

Such is the suggestion of La Follette supporters, who believe that if progressive Democrats play
the game shrewdly they will be able, by getting their man on the ticket as vice presidential candidate, to land him in the White House on March 4, 1925.

Sounds rather absurd and foolish,
doesn't it? But it's really a very wise and astute proposal. And
there's absolutely no catch in it!
Follow carefully and you'll find
how very simple it is.

WITH Democrats and Republicans in a neck-and-neck
race, a third or independent party which could carry even four or five states would, by preventing either
old party from obtaining a majority of the electors throw the election into Congress.

That much is conceded and is old stuff. It has been recounted over and over of late.

In which event the House of Representatives, voting by states,
must try to elect a president and
the Senate, voting as individuals,
ballots for vice president.

WITH five of the 48 state delegations tied as between Republicans and Democrats, neither party holds a clear majority, by states, in the House. La Follette
also would be able to control the vote of Wisconsin, recorded as Republican, and perhaps of Minnesota and North Dakota. A deadlock which could be maintained indefinitely might result there.

In the Senate, where the membership votes as individuals, the Democrats and La Follette progressives hold, together, a clear majority. If the Democratic vice presidential candidate was satisfactory to the La Follette group, there would be little delay in putting him

across.

SUPPOSE then—since this is
purely a speculative story—
March 4 arrives without the House
having selected a president.

President Coolidge's term expires
at noon March 4. No successor, as such, has been chosen. What happens?

A vice president, duly elected by the Senate as provided by the constitution, has been chosen.

And the vice president, in event
a vacancy occurs in the presidency,
succeeds to that office. Therefore—

Up steps the man who has been selected by the Senate as vice president to take the tiller of the Ship of State. Q. E. D.

THIS is the play figured, and figured seriously. So seriously, in fact, that actual discussion of a Democratic vice presidential nominee who would be satisfactory
to La Follette has been reached.

Huston Thompson, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, stands out as the choice for the proposed coalition candidate. It is stated as authoritative that La Follette believes Thompson is the future leader of the progressive movement in this country and would throw his full support behind him to land him in the presidency.

Should the Democrats name him
for second place on their ticket, he will doubtless be found also entered in second place on the La Follette independent ticket. Which, of course, would make the above play
logical and reasonable.

STILL another move is suggested
which might land the long-
legged progressive from Colorado
in the White House.

Should the Democrats see their way clear to nominate him outright for president, La Follette
would help put him across by keeping out of the race himself.

Wills Wins Big Victory

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, June 4—Interesting competition, spectacular contests and record-breaking performances are quite certain to be numerous during the track and field, swimming, rowing and boxing events at the Olympic games, but none of them promise to arouse the international interest that will follow the probable meeting of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, world's tennis champion, and Miss Helen Wills the 18 year old American champion.

The idol of the American court and the proud boast of her country already has scored one tremendous victory in Europe. "Our Helen", sidestepping the polite language of the game for adequate expression, knocked them dead when she arrived in England.

It had been predicted before the California girl sailed for her first trip across the Atlantic that her personal charm would win a place in the heart of the English, but no one realized that they would fall as madly in love with her as they did.

London newspapers depicted that it was not within memory when any foreign visitor so quickly and so completely captivated the affections of all who met her as did the charming American miss. American friends can picture the blush on the young champion's cheeks when she read that her pictures printed in England "did her beauty a grave injustice." Her personal charm always have been generous in paying tribute to the modesty and ability of their champion, but they have not gone so far as to tell her how good looking she is.

While the primary purpose of her journey to Europe was to do her best in the Wimbledon matches and the Olympic championships, it is none the less important that she scored

such a complete personal triumph. Col. Robert Thompson, president of the American Olympic Committee, said, during the early days of the organization of America's participation in the Paris games, that one of the principal purposes in entering a large number of teams was to sell the United States to the world."

He pointed out that the United States was being misunderstood greatly in Europe since the war and that the athletes had a great chance to show on the field of sport that the United States did have some real ideals. He insisted that the American athletes should be gentlemen first and victors after, if possible.

FOUR CENTERS REPORTED

Preliminary Meets Brought Out New
Records And Several Unheard of Athletes

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 4—"Our prospects could not be more pleasing. The athletes all over are surprising us. We're finding new stars we hadn't expected, and veterans are doing more than expected."

Lawson Robertson, head coach of the American Olympic team, made this comment about the prospects for the United States team at Paris this summer after watching the intercollegiate championships and after hearing the results of the four trials meets Saturday.

Performances in the meets Saturday clinched places on the Olympic team for a number of athletes. Ivan Riley, of the Illinois Athletic Club broke the world's record for the 400 meter hurdles. He made a mark of 52 5-10 seconds, which is good enough to win in any meet.

Wilson, of the University of Iowa made a new world's record for 200 meters when he sprinted the distance in 21 1-10 seconds.

L. B. Scheaney, Howard Payne University, equalled the record for 100 meters in 19 4-5 seconds.

Comin, star Yale sprinter and broad-jumper, clinched a place of the team when he turned in 24 feet 8 inches for the broad jump, and Owens, Pennsylvania, made a great performance in the pole vault.

Glenn Hartranft of Stanford; Bud Houser of California, and Ralph Hills, Princeton, proved they were the best shotputters in the country and probably winners at Paris.

The Yanks started their western tour by beating the White Sox 6 to 3.

The victory of the favorite was greeted by thunderous cheers. Sansevine, ridden by Jockey Weston, had been quoted at 7 to 1, choice of the field.

PRESIDENT GIVES ACCOUNT OF WORK

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of Federation of Clubs For Four Years, Gives Report

TO RETIRE AFTER THIS YEAR

Her Administration Bequeaths to Following Administration a Problem Rather than Accomplishment

Los Angeles, Calif., June 4—Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, Minn., President of the Federation of Women's Clubs, made her report to the convention today. For four years Mrs. Winter has been the official head of the 2,500,000 women members of the organization. She retires after the present session.

The four years just ended Mrs. Winter said made the following contributions to Federation life:

1. The closer relation of state officers to each other and to the General Federation.
2. The increase in number of clubs in direct membership from two thousand to five thousand.
3. The movement toward universal membership made actual in fourteen states.
4. The reorganization of department work.
5. The democracy of the free news bulletin.
6. The purchase and equipping of headquarters.
7. Junior membership, organization and club institutes.

After reviewing in detail the accomplishments of the organization in its four years of her administration, Mrs. Winter concluded:

"But these contacts with things that are going on all over the country reflect back in a renewed confidence in the vital forces and in our own dominating influence, our potency, if we choose to avail ourselves of our chances for greatness."

"So the administration of 1920 to 1924 bequeaths to 1924 to 1926 a problem rather than an accomplishment. We have been only a push-off May 1924 to 1928 fly where we have plodded!"

COUNCIL PLANS TO CHANGE CLASS

Continued from Page One following departments: Memorial park $13,989; city park $807.50 street improvement $1,536.46; water and light $8,122.12; general fund $25,753.23.

The city water and light plan will go out of the coal business, according to the council, who gave Supt. A. T. Mahin instructions last night to stop selling coal to individual consumers. Mayor Thomas stated that people do not appreciate a saving that the city tries to make, and that some of the people buy coal from city, and then in turn sign remonstrance against minor improvements.

One person in particular was discussed as having laid in his winter's coal at a big saving, from the city and was among the persons to sign the remonstrance against the city bond issue. "There are more ways than one to make those kind of people pay the bills," said Mayor Thomas, in ordering the superintendent not to sell coal from the water and light offices.

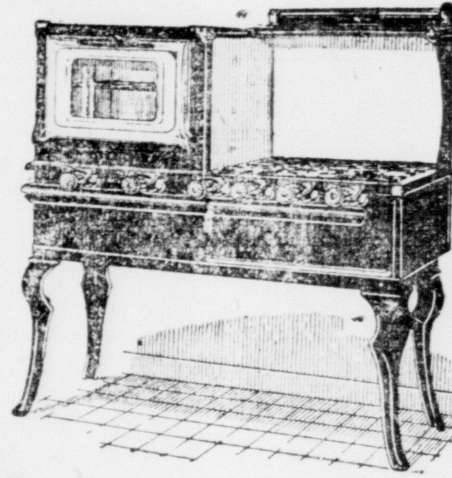

The council then jumped into the plan of changing the classification of the city, in which an additional expense of $7,000 a year in salaries will be entailed. All of the councilmen stated that they were ready to repeal all ordinances that had been passed concerning the classification and that steps would be started to go into the fourth class, where the various boards are given more power to act.

Mayor Thomas stated that the administration had done everything to lessen taxes, and has changed the classification from fourth to fifth class to save $7,000 a year, and that a stroke of the pen would have added that much to the tax list.

"People don't appreciate this saving," he said, "or they would not be offering protests against these small bond issues. The average taxpayer who signed that remonstrance will not notice any burden. If they feel like that, then you can count me in on changing the classification and we can lay our plans accordingly for the next meeting. It will be one step where the 'apple knocker' will not have any voice, except to pay the bill."

The Dill foundry was asked to submit prices on small traffic posts to fit over the man holes at street intersections, with a light in the base. The plan to be considered call for the small cylinders over the manholes, which do not obstruct the street corners, and which permits large trucks to pass over them in making a corner.

The question of locating the Salvation army open air meetings on another corner on Saturday nights was left with the committee to consult with the local army captain. An order some time ago was issued calling for the meetings to assemble on the court house side of the square, instead of the bank corner.

Police were instructed to take positions at Second and Third streets in Main during busy hours, and to assist in directing the traffic at these points. The police also were directed to watch violators of the city dump ordinance, as it is said that many people are dumping rubbish in the roadway before the city dump is reached.

As a result of Ralston's stand, it is probable that the Indiana Delegation will go to the national convention officially uninstructed but ready to work for Ralston.

Ralston's closest political advisors believe the convention will turn to him after a deadlock has developed on other candidates and that it will be best for him not to be placed in the position of being an avowed candidate just yet.

Senator Ralston, Tom Taggart and other leaders of Indiana Democracy were in conference throughout the day planning for the convention.

Ralston discussed the party platform and particularly the Ku Klux Klan issue at a meeting of a dozen leaders last night, but refused to commit himself on the Klan issue.

More proposed planks have been offered on the subject of the Klan than on any other question, it was said. A determined effort was made to find a plank that will reconcile the hostile Klan and anti-Klan factions in the convention.

Democratic leaders say they are not trying to sidestep the issue, but that it would be against the principle of the party to pick out one organization to denounce in the platform.

The platform, it is understood, will probably call for a cooperative marketing plan and will not refer to the primary law.

An effort will be made to hold out a more promising program to draw the labor vote than was incorporated in the Republican platform.

There was intense activity around the headquarters of the eight candidates for governor today. Dr. Carleton McCulloch, plurality candidate in the primaries, still appeared to have the advantage.

Tom Taggart, who announced for McCulloch one time ago, was actively working in his behalf.

Other candidates, however, declared their prospects were good and that they would fight it out to a finish on the convention floor and let the best man win.

JUDGESHIP BILL COMES UP

Provides For Two Judges And One Federal District in Indiana

Washington, June 4—The senate judiciary committee has authorized Senator Shortridge to report out the bill providing an additional federal judgeship for Indiana. This measure is a substitute for the Hickey court bill which passed the house several months ago and which provided for cutting Indiana into two federal court districts.

Under the bill as reported, Indiana remains one judiciary district with seven seats of court and two federal judges. The court will sit in Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Hammond, Terre Haute, New Albany and Evansville.

The proposed legislation will involve an additional expense of approximately $20,000.

Often, especially on a cold, damp morning, an old-fashioned coal or wood range will just refuse to burn up. ## COUNCIL PLANS TO CHANGE CLASS

Definite Action Moving City Into
Fourth Class and Increasing Salaries
Deferred 2 Weeks

TWO CONTRACTS AWARDED

Bids on Memorial Park Boulevard
Opened, But Letting is Delayed
Due to Injunction Suit

Considerable business marked the regular session of the city council Tuesday night, including the awarding of two contracts and opening of bids on the construction of Memorial Park boulevard.

A discussion on the proposed change of the classification of the city from fifth to fourth class showed a unanimous decision on the part of the council to make the change, and definite action was delayed until the next meeting, June 17.

Wardley Wyatt was named as a member on the city school board, and will serve for another three years. Last night was the time set for receiving bids on the construction of a sidewalk, curb and gutter in North Sixth street, from Ninth to Eleventh, and two bids were submitted. The contract was awarded to A. R. Herkless for a total of $1,175.60. The other bid was submitted by Clarence and Lawrence Pen, and was $2.50 higher than the bid accepted.

Several attempts were made in the last year to award this small contract, but either the faulty bids or advertising has prevented the work from being done.

The councilmen also entered into a contract with the Conveyors Corporation of America, Chicago, Ill., for the construction of an ash conveyor at the city water and light plant for $1,391.50. Bids on the equipment were received a month ago, when several firms submitted prices, and the decision was reached last night.

Bids on the construction of the boulevard around Memorial park were opened, and two firms offered estimates. The Andrews Asphalt Paving Company of Hamilton, contractors on Morgan street, offered a big for $17,728.65, which was above the estimate, and was rejected. The other bid was submitted by the Cromwell-Stone company of Hamilton for $12,994.55.

The council voted to construct the new roadway with the penetration type, which is similar to asphalt, and action on the contract with the firm was deferred until after an injunction suit can be heard June 13 in court.

The financial condition of the city shows a prosperous bank account, according to the financial statement submitted to the council for auditing by Earl Conway, city treasurer.

The report shows that the city has on hand a total of $50,211.44 from all funds and this sum is deposited in local banks. The big distribution of these funds are in the

Annual Report on Common, Congressional and Permanent Endowment Funds is Made

$2,325.79 ADDED DURING YEAR

Rush county has a total of $134,137.02 in school funds loaned on Rush county real estate and drawing interest regularly, it is revealed in the annual report on the common, congressional and permanent endowment school funds, just completed at the county auditor's office.

The report is for the fiscal year beginning June 1, 1923 and ending May 31, 1924. It shows that the common school fund received $2,325.79 during the year from the following sources: State of Indiana, $1,240.79; justice of peace fees, $4.00; fines in mayor's court, $502.00; fines in circuit court $519.00.

Money in the common school fund at the beginning of the fiscal year amounted to $103,550.48, the congressional, $23,880.32, and the permanent endowment $6,706.22, including $56.66 which was received from the state during the year.

COMPROMISE ON THE KLAN PLANK

Party Harmony and Optimism Apparent as Democratic Hosts Gather for State Convention

KLAN NOT TO BE MENTIONED

Reference to it Will be Anti-Klan in Sentiment—Ralston Opposes Endorsement

(By United Press)

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Party harmony and optimism over the outlook for the campaign, prevailed as hundreds of delegates gathered here today for the democratic state convention which opens tomorrow morning in Tomlinson hall.

With the troublesome klan plank apparently disposed of to the satisfaction of all, faction leaders were hopeful that the convention would not be marred by injection of issues other than those of state government.

A plank which will not mention the klan by name, but which will be anti-klan in sentiment, is ready for inclusion in the platform, it was said.

The plank charges that the republican party sought to inject the klan issue into the campaign to "defeat attention from the record of the republican administration."

The lobby of the Claypool hotel was a whirlpool of humanity and on "candidate row" on the eighth floor the crowd was jammed down every corridor.

Senator Samuel M. Ralston today discouraged efforts of Indiana Democrats to launch a formal boom for his nomination for the presidency.

He opposed a move to get the state convention to endorse him for the nomination after a resolution had been drawn up by his friends ready to present on the floor of the convention.

Ralston declared he is not a candidate for the Democratic nomination, that he is building up no organization and seeking to pledge no

ACCUSED WOMAN HYSTERICAL

(By United Press)

Connersville, Ind., June 4—Everett Ketchum, chief of police, was the first witness called by the state today in the trial of Mrs. Elda Gibbs Simmermeyer, 28, charged with the murder of her husband, John J. Simmermeyer, 33.

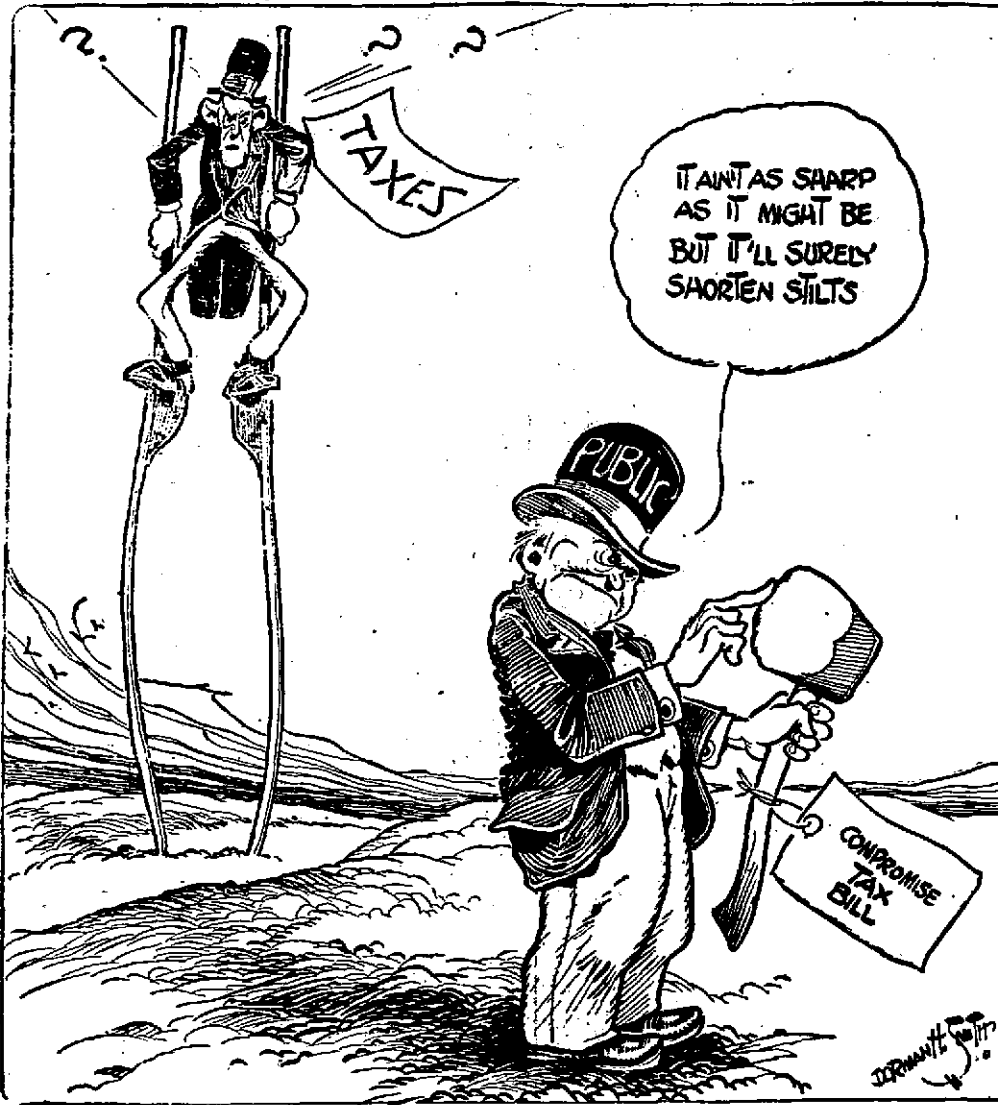

Ketchum testified as to the surroundings in the Simmermeyer home when he was called to the house after the shooting.

Neighbors of the Simmermeyers were to testify regarding the domestic affairs of the couple and Coroner Robert Porter told of depositions taken from the accused woman while investigating the death of Simmermeyer.

The jury for the trial was selected late yesterday. Eight of the members are Connersville business men and four are farmers. Examination of witnesses proceeded slowly today.

Hysterically weeping at times and at times staring vacantly at the floor of the court room, Mrs. Simmermeyer sat throughout the court proceedings. On her lap she held the youngest of her three children.

BROOKHART LEADS IN RACE

Iowa Senator Pulls Away From Opponent in Primary Count

Des Moines, Ia., June 4—United States Senator Smith W. Brookhart defeated Burton E. Sweet for the Republican senatorial nomination in Iowa, last returns on the face of nearly complete returns from Monday's primary election.

Brookhart early today had pulled away from Sweet to a majority of more than 30,000 votes. Returns from 2,322 precincts of the 2,412 in the state gave Brookhart 188,341 and Sweet 157,921.

The remaining precincts to be heard from are largely in the rural communities and are expected to swell Brookhart's lead rather than subtract from it.

CLOSE TO 1,000 AT STATE ENCAMPMENT

Monster Parade of Annual G. A. R. Meeting And Campfire Scheduled For Today at Frankfort

OLDEST VETERAN LOCAL MAN

(By United Press)
Frankfort, Ind., June 4—With nearly 1,000 delegates in attendance the forty-fifth annual encampment of the G. A. R. went into its first business sessions here today.

A luncheon was served by the local Kiwanis club at noon. Every veteran attended.

A monster parade was to be held this afternoon, followed by the annual campfire in Howard Hall, tonight.

Ideal weather prevailed today after a wet opening day, bidding fair to make the parade this afternoon colorful and spectacular.

The entire town is dressed up, miles of bunting being displayed and signs of welcome in evidence everywhere.

Distinguished visitors in attendance, are Nat. commander-in-chief, Gaylor Satzgarber, VanWert O., and National Commander Quinn of the American Legion. Both will take part in the parade this afternoon and deliver addresses at the campfire in Howard Hall tonight.

The Frankfort dispatch contained a paragraph to the effect that the oldest veteran present was Uriah Gassaway, 97, of Rushville, who served in the Mexican and Civil wars. Local G. A. R. records do not reveal the name of Gassaway or one like it, and no one here knows a man of that name, so far as could be learned today.

Shelbyville, Ind., June 4—The prosecution scored here today in the trial of Charles Henry, colored, charged with the murder of Jesse Louden, Indianapolis policeman.

Crowe Says State Places its Chief Reliance in Witnesses Who Heard Incriminating Statements

(By United Press)

Chicago, June 4—The state, in its attempt to hang Nathan Leopold and Richard Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks, must depend upon positive evidence of the crime, Clarence Darrow, chief attorney for the defense of the two boys, told the United Press today.

Darrow, who heads the $15,000,000 legal staff retained by the millionaire parents of Leopold and Loeb, said he was "interested" in a statement made by Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, admitting the state had no signed confession of the murder.

Although declaring his belief that the state's attorney might "spring some surprise on us yet," Darrow indicated that if it were true no signed confession is in the hands of the prosecution, the defense would be strengthened considerably.

In admitting that Leopold and Loeb never signed admission of the crime, Crowe said stenographers who took notes on the boys' statements, would testify for the state, thus taking the place of signed confession.

"A confession as an instrument in itself means nothing anyway," Crowe said. "It might very easily be ruled out by a trial judge. It is in witnesses to incriminating statements made by the boys that the

HAVE SUBSTITUTE FOR M'NARY-HAUGEN BILL

House Republican Leaders Lay Another Measure Before Coolidge in Place of Defeated Bill

ARE PREPARING TO ADJOURN

(By United Press)

Washington, June 4—House republican leaders today laid before President Coolidge a substitute farm relief measure to take the place of the defeated McNary-Haugen bill on which they asked his opinion.

The new measure would utilize the resources of the war finance corporation to finance expert marketing of farm product surpluses.

Congress today settled down to dispose of a few contentious issues, pass necessary appropriation bills and then scatter to the country Saturday night.

The senate, having concurred in the house resolution to adjourn at 7 p. m., June 7 during the next four days probably will engage in a test vote on the Muscle Shoals question, take up the $150,000,000 naval construction program, pass one or two supply bills and dispose of whatever the house sends it.

The house has on its program only an appropriation bill, the reclamation bill recommended by the department of interior which may be attached as a rider to the appropriation bill and the possible addition of a substitute farm bill, which farm bloc leaders are believed to have agreed on to replace the defeated McNary-Haugen bill.

Rushville Has Reason to Take Pride in I. & C. Accomplishment, Technical Press Editor Says

SPENDS WEEK ON THE LINE

Charles Gordon of Electrical Railway Journal Collects Data For Article on Engineering Feat

Charles Gordon, western editor of the Electric Railway Journal, has spent a week going over the new equipment which is being put in by the I. & C. Traction Company, and has been collecting information for an extensive article in the technical press describing the new developments on the traction system. Mr. Gordon was the guest of Superintendent Baxter at the Kiwanis Club luncheon last Thursday.

Discussing the significance of this important change on the railway system, Mr. Gordon stated that Rushville had good cause to be proud of the native Indiana grit that had made this important improvement possible in the face of heavy engineering and financial odds.

"One thing," said Mr. Gordon in reply to questions from a Daily Republican representative, "that the people of this community should not overlook, is the fact that an entire new type electrical power system has been put in without interrupting the operation of the road. In this day of outstanding engineering accomplishments, the man on the street has become accustomed to accepting as a matter of course developments which a few years would have been deemed impossible. Sometimes these things occur under our very eyes and are given only passing interest.

"In many respects this new system of the I. & C. road should attract the interest of every resident of this community. The new system includes a series of direct current stations which automatically start up and shut down, as required by the operation of cars over the line. These stations are so ingeniously designed that they almost seem to think. They have been put into operation step by step and the new power gradually extended while the old cars were continued in operation. Bad weather has been encountered, but the work was pushed forward and today the citizens of Rushville may justly be proud of the success accomplished."

Now that the new automatic direct current system has been adopted and put in operation, conditions for entering Cincinnati have reached a point where the long desired extension to that city seems to be again in sight. As the plans of the road to extend to Cincinnati are finally carried out, Rushville will find itself on an important high speed electric

"Tanlac has increased my weight from 115 to 150 pounds and made me so well and happy that I just feel like singing for joy," is the enthusiastic statement of Mrs. W. E. Schobert, 246 W. Bakemeyer St., Indianapolis, Ind.

"The change in me is perfectly wonderful! Why, three months ago, my appetite was so poor I hardly cared to eat anything, my nerves were all unstrung and I was feeling woefully weak and run-down. Bilious attacks, severe headaches, dizziness, and sleeplessness were also troubling me; sometimes I ached from head to feet, and everything I took to relieve my troubles seemed to aggravate them instead.

"But not so with Tanlac. It gave me complete relief and now I eat fine, sleep fine and feel fine and am simply delighted with the strength and energy it has brought me. Tanlac is certainly a grand medicine.

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 Million Bottles sold.

MOVIES

"Lorna Doone" At Castle
Heralded by critics throughout the country as Maurice Tourneur's "greatest masterpiece" and a "thrilling dramatic spectacle of unrivaled beauty," "Lorna Doone" will open at the Castle theatre today.

Tourneur's fictionalization of Blackmore's famous novel has attracted world-wide attention and for once the critics have forgotten to complain that "the picture is nothing like the book." While the novel has been decidedly condensed in the film version, all the main dramatic episodes which have made the book a "best-seller" for three generations have been retained and the spirit of the times has been faithfully reproduced.

Madge Bellamy, endeared to the public by her splendid work in Thomas H. Ince's "Hail the Woman" plays the title role. With her beauty and undeniable charm, she should be ideal in the part of the gentle "captive maid of Exmoor." John Bowers, one of the biggest men physically of the screen, has been appropriately cast for the role of "John Ridd", Lorna's lover who was the "strongest man in Devonshire." Frank Keenan plays the regal old outlaw chief, "Sir Ensor Doone" with Donald MacDonald as the villainous "Carver Doone," who meets such a horrible death in a quagmire.

This is a benefit show given by the Always Present Class of the Main Street-Christian Church. The Crinoline Chorus girls will sing.

SPLIT SEEN ON G. O. P. PLATFORM

President Coolidge And Republican Leaders Will Divide Opinions Over Issues

SEVERAL MATTERS ARE UP

United Press Writer Says Questions of Taxes, Immigration and World Court Are Contentions

By FRAZER EDWARDS
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Washington, June 4—The Republican platform of 1924 is the rock on which President Coolidge and Republican leaders in congress are finally going to split.

The seeming accord which has been preserved between the White House and the capitol, despite ruder jars of the bonus, tax bill, immigration question and world court, is definitely scheduled to dissolve on this question.

Coolidge managers insist upon the president's virtually writing his own platform. Senate Republicans, a score of whom are up for re-election, believe that if he is permitted to dictate it, he alone can stand on it.

A short, direct statement of principles is what the Coolidge managers desire, plainly outlining the president's program for the future. This, however, senators believe, would show them in direct conflict with Mr. Coolidge because of their votes on legislation in the present congress.

They want the platform to be a tent big enough to cover them as well as the president—not one which will bring into bold relief the differences which exist between congress and the White House.

The president however, virtually will name the platform committee insuring planks representing his views. Such stalwarts as Watson and Lodge, who have been platform moulders in the past, will have little voice in the proceedings. Lodge may not even be a member.

Lafollette principles will find no place in the platform. Coolidge managers are prepared to "steam roller" any suggestions made by the supporters of the Wisconsin senator but they cannot prevent his state delegation from making a minority report, embodying their ideas.

This is all the Lafollette people expect to do at Cleveland. For their purposes, it will be enough.

TWO BOYS SIGNED NO CONFESSIONS

Crowe said he would summon all possible witnesses before the grand jury, disregarding the usual custom of holding back "surprise witnesses" for the actual trial.

"We are going to get together all the evidence possible now," he said.

If any witness refuses to testify at the trial, we will have the record of his testimony before the grand jury to take its place. If any witness changes his story in any essential detail when the trial gets under way, we will prosecute the witness for perjury."

Leopold and Loeb were adapting themselves today to the routine of prison life. They took their prescribed "setting up" exercises and attended the prison school. In their cells they spent most of the time reading magazines.

Allen M. Loeb, business man from Seattle, a brother of Richard Loeb, arrived from the west today and called immediately at the jail. Because he was from another city, Loeb was allowed to visit his brother despite the fact it was not a visiting day.

While waiting in an anti-room, Loeb glanced casually through a book which he found on a table. It contained a long list of names, each followed by a certain date. Curious to know the meaning of the list, Loeb glanced at the heading.

"Public executions in the state of Illinois," appeared in bold type at the top of the page. Eighty-five names were listed, dating from 1840.

"A ghastly thing to have around here," Loeb said, and quickly closed the book.

Loeb refused to make any statement concerning the case.

FLY ACROSS EAST CHINA SEA

Two of Three U. S. Round The World Aviators Make Flight Safely

Shanghai, June 4—Two of the three American round the world planes flew successfully across the East China Sea from Japan to China today. The third plane, that of Lieut. Lowell Smith, commander of the flight, failed to take off satisfactorily and was forced to remain off Shigeto-mi, Japan.

Lieuts. Leigh Wade and Eric Nelson, after hovering awhile awaiting their commander, flew on from Kagoshima and arrived at Shanghai without mishap.

The American consul is understood to have sent an engineer to provide Lieut. Smith with all possible assistance in making necessary repairs to his plane and it was hoped the flight commander would catch up with his comrades here tomorrow.

CONFINED TO BED

Birmingham Lady Took Cardui for Relief of Change of Life Troubles and Says It Helped Her "So Much."

Birmingham, Ala.—"I first took Cardui for that tired, worn-out feeling that comes from being dreadfully run-down," says Mrs. Catherine E. Smith, of 2106 Stout Street. "Twenty-five years ago, I was suffering from womanly weaknesses."

"I read of Cardui in an almanac, and thought I would try it. I got a bottle and it helped me from the first. After that, during the whole of my married life, I took Cardui when I needed it."

"About four years ago, change of life came on me. . . I grew weaker and weaker, and was confined to my bed, where I lay on my back for days. I was told that only a severe operation could do me any good, and this depressed me very much, for I dreaded such an ordeal."

"I remembered how Cardui had helped me for female trouble in the past and I had read of how it had helped other women during change of life, so one night I told my husband to go to the drug store and get me a bottle. I began taking it at once. From the first dose I could feel myself getting stronger. . . I continued to take Cardui until I was entirely through this very trying period of a woman's life."

BEE INDUSTRY SHOWS DULL EARLY SEASON

CLOVER HONEY LOOKS GOOD

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Extremes are the rule in the bee industry in Indiana this year according to C. O. Yost, chief apriary inspector, of the Department of Conservation. The bee season is the most retarded since the department was established twenty-eight years ago.

But the outlook for clover honey this year is the best in years, Yost says.

The bees are strong and hardy and the clover crop which was abundant last year will be as large this year, according to Yost.

A series of apriary inspections and bee tours have been planned for the early part of this month which Yost will attend, to give demonstrations and lectures on the proper management of apriaries and the proper raising of bees.

The Sullivan County Beekeepers convention was held in Shelburn Sunday.

The annual Vigo County Beekeepers convention opened here today and last until Thursday. All the apriaries will be visited and demonstrations on the proper handling of bees will be given by Yost.

Noble County beekeepers will make a similar tour on June 6.

A tour of Wabash County will be held June 16.

High Winds Blow Onion Seed Out of the Ground

Wolf Lake, Ind., June 4—Onion growers of north central Indiana during the last few weeks suffered losses that will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars as a result of their seed literally being blown out of the ground by high winds.

It is estimated by many extensive growers that from one fourth to one fifth of the seed sown this spring has been blown out.

Many growers are resowing their seed, but others are placed at a great disadvantage in not being able to procure seed.

Whole fields of onions recently planted in the vicinity of Monquet, Kosciusko county, have been literally rained by high winds blowing the seed from the ground. A similar situation has been experienced in Steuben, Whitley, Starke, Fulton, Marshall and other counties.

Strawberries Not Damaged

Indianapolis, Ind., June 4—Late spring freezes, frosts and rains have curbed production of some varieties of fruits and vegetables in Indiana, but the strawberry crop is going to come through with a record this year, according to George C. Bryant, agricultural statistician, and Frank N. Wallace state entomologist who have made a personal survey of conditions.

Only small raspberry, blackberry, current, and gooseberry crops are in prospect, they report. A small peach crop was also forecast, but other fruits have not been affected by the winter chill.

Melon planting activities are greatly delayed.

Took Everything Loose

Disko, Ind., June 4—Bandits who looted the post office here were unable to find anything of value and they ransacked the general store, taking nearly everything but the fixtures and then escaped with the proprietor's automobile.

Rushville Tax Rate Law

Regardless of talk that Rushville
people are hearing these days about
high taxes, the average person does
not realize how cheaply it is to live
here.

Last year Rushville was sixth in the list in Indiana for low taxes,
and every neighboring city had considerably higher rates. This year,
the state has not prepared the list
showing a comparison of the cities,
but it is a safe guess that Rushville
will rank well up in the list, as having a low rate.

This year the rate in Rushville is $.235, and last year it was $.237.
The city administration, which regulates these rates, has assured the people of Rushville that the rates
will be lower even next year, in face
of the talk and remonstrances to
bond issues.

With Rushville citizens paying $.235 on the hundred dollars this year, the following cities may be a
comparison, and those who remon-
strate against the so-called high
taxes, should think twice.

	1923	1924
Greensburg	3.11	3.10
Newcastle	2.73	2.66
Knightstown	2.685	2.45
Seymour	3.04	2.06
Pt. Wayne	2.27	2.28
Franklin	2.49	2.49
Connersville	3.15	3.27
Rushville	2.37	2.35

The present administration has under consideration a $30,000 bond issue for improvements and for the payment of notes on which seven per cent interest is being paid. Some citizens, who term the bond issue as unnecessary, and who have filed a remonstrance against the issue, are
doing so with the intent of lowering
the tax rate, while in reality the rate
will be increased, because if the money for improvements is not
raised by a bond issue, it will have to be borrowed at 7 percent, because the city council intends to
make the improvements.

It is much cheaper to borrow money
on bonds at 5 percent, retiring the
bonds in $2,000 amounts each year,
than to meet a debt with 7 percent
interest each six months.

Improvements are necessary. The city hall, which seems to be the
bone of contention, must be re-
roofed within the next few weeks, or
else the bedbugs which infest the place, will be drowned. The councilmen have extended a hearty welcome to taxpayers to come down
and look over the situation, before
they condemn the bond issue.

Farm Price Index Up

Agriculture as a whole now stands
to gain the greatest economic leverage since 1919, due to the slacken-
ing urban demand for industrial products, which may be expected to result in some easing down in wages
and prices of things that farmers
buy.

This is the conclusion of the department of agriculture June review.
It is the work of experts and is built
largely on theory, but even theory
some times works out in practice,
and everyone is hoping that a bright-
er time for agriculture is just around

Hunt's Washington Letter

BY HARRY D. HUNT

NEA Service Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—The
Democrats, if they are wise,
will put the man they want to be president in the second place on
their ticket—provided, of course,
that he is a real, honest-to-John,
upstanding, progressive sort of
gent.

Such is the suggestion of La
Follette supporters, who believe
that if progressive Democrats play
the game shrewdly they will be able, by getting their man on the ticket as vice presidential candidate, to land him in the White
House on March 4, 1925.

Sounds rather absurd and foolish.
Doesn't it? But it's really a very wise and astute proposal. And
there's absolutely no catch in it!
Follow carefully and you'll find
how very simple it is.

WITH Democrats and Republicans in a neck-and-neck
race, a third or independent party
which could carry even four or five
states would, by preventing either
old party from obtaining a majority of the electors throw the election into Congress.

That much is conceded and is old
stuff. It has been recounted over
and over of late.

In which event the House of Representatives, voting by states,
must try to elect a president and
the Senate, voting as individuals,
ballots for vice president.

WITH five of the 48 state delegations tied as between Republicans and Democrats, neither party holds a clear majority, by
states, in the House. La Follette
also would be able to control the
vote of Wisconsin, recorded as Republican, and perhaps of Minnesota and North Dakota. A deadlock which could be maintained indefinitely might result there.

In the Senate, where the membership votes as individuals, the Democrats and La Follette pro-
gressives hold, together, a clear majority. If the Democratic vice

presidential candidate was satisfactory to the La Follette group, there would be little delay in putting him
across.

SUPPOSE then—since this is
purely a speculative story—
March 4 arrives without the House
having selected a president.

President Coolidge's term expires
at noon March 4. No successor, as such, has been chosen. What happens?

A vice president, duly elected by the Senate as provided by the constitution, has been chosen.

And the vice president, in event
a vacancy occurs in the presidency,
succeeds to that office. Therefore—

Up steps the man who has been selected by the Senate as vice president to take the tiller of the
Ship of State. Q. E. D.

THUS is the play figured, and figured seriously. So seriously, in fact, that actual discussion
of a Democratic vice presidential nominee who would be satisfactory
to La Follette has been reached.

Huston Thompson, chairman of
the Federal Trade Commission,
stands out as the choice for the proposed coalition candidate. It is stated as authoritative that La
Follette believes Thompson is the
future leader of the progressive
movement in this country and
would throw his full support behind him to land him in the presidency.

Should the Democrats name him
for second place on their ticket, he
will doubtless be found also entered
in second place on the La Follette
independent ticket. Which, of course, would make the above play
logical and reasonable.

STILL another move is suggested
which might land the long-
legged progressive from Colorado
in the White House.

Should the Democrats see their way clear to nominate him out-
right for president, La Follette
would help put him across by keeping out of the race himself.

Wills Wins Big Victory

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)
New York, June 4—Interesting competition, spectacular contests and record-breaking performances are quite certain to be numerous during the track and field, swimming, rowing and boxing events at the Olympic games, but none of them promise to arouse the international interest that will follow the probable meeting of Mlle. Suzanne Lenglen, world's tennis champion, and Miss Helen Wills the 18 year old American champion.

The idol of the American court and the proud boast of her country already has scored one tremendous victory in Europe. "Our Helen", sidestepping the polite language of the game for adequate expression, knocked them dead when she arrived in England.

It had been predicted before the California girl sailed for her first trip across the Atlantic that her personal charm would win a place in the heart of the English, but no one realized that they would fall as madly in love with her as they did.

London newspapers remarked that it was not within memory when any foreign visitor so quickly and so completely captivated the affections of all who met her as did the charming American miss. American friends can picture the blush on the young champion's cheeks when she read that her pictures printed in England "did her beauty and her personal charm a grave injustice." American newspapers always have been generous in paying tribute to the modesty and ability of their champion, but they have not gone so far as to tell her how good looking she is.

While the primary purpose of her journey to Europe was to do her best in the Wimbledon matches and the Olympic championships, it is none the less important that she scored

such a complete personal triumph. Col. Robert Thompson, president of the American Olympic Committee, said, during the early days of the organization of America's participation in the Paris games, that one of the principal purposes in entering a large number of teams was to sell the United States to the world."

He pointed out that the United States was being misunderstood greatly in Europe since the war and that the athletes had a great chance to show on the field of sport that the United States did have some real ideals. He insisted that the American athletes should be gentlemen first and victors after, if possible.

Preliminary Meets Brought Out New
Records And Several Unheard of
Athletes

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, June 4— "Our prospects could not be more pleasing. The athletes all over are surprising us. We're finding new stars we hadn't expected, and veterans are doing more than expected."

Lawson Robertson, head coach of the American Olympic team made this comment about the prospects for the United States team at Paris this summer after watching the intercollegiate championships and after hearing the results of the four trials meets Saturday.

Performances in the meets Saturday clinched places on the Olympic team for a number of athletes. Ivan Riley, of the Illinois Athletic Club broke the world's record for the 400 meter hurdles. He made a mark of 52 5-10 seconds, which is good enough to win in any meet.

Wilson, of the University of Iowa made a new world's record for 200 meters when he sprinted the distance in 21 1-10 seconds.

L. B. Scheaney, Howard Payne University, equalled the record for 100 meters in 10 4-5 seconds.

Comin, star Yale sprinter and broad-jumper, clinched a place of the team when he turned in 24 feet 8 inches for the broad jump, and Owens, Pennsylvania, made a great performance in the pole vault.

Glen Hartruff of Stanford, Bud Houser of California, and Ralph Hills, Princeton, proved they were the best shotputters in the country and probably winners at Paris.

The Yanks started their western tour by beating the White Sox 6 to 3.

Sansevine Takes Historic Event
From Best English 3-Year-Olds

Epsom, Eng., June 4—Lord Derby's Sansevine, the favorite won the historic Epsom Derby today from a large field of the best 3-year-olds in England.

The race was run in a drizzle which dampened the course, but not the enthusiasm of nearly half a million race goers who crowded grand stands, enclosure and the rolling Downs to see the 111st renewal of the famous race for the Derby stakes.

The victory of the favorite was greeted by thunderous cheers. Sansevine, ridden by Jockey Weston, had been quoted at 7 to 1, choice of the field.

KEEPING ONE EYE
ON THE SCOREBOARD

Fowler's wild throw let in the only run the Braves scored and the Reds won 5 to 1.

Shocker lasted only four innings under a bombardment and the Red Sox beat the Browns 8 to 7. Sisler, Hoone and Harris hit homers.

The Giants took a double header from the Robins at 9 to 3 and 7 to 2.

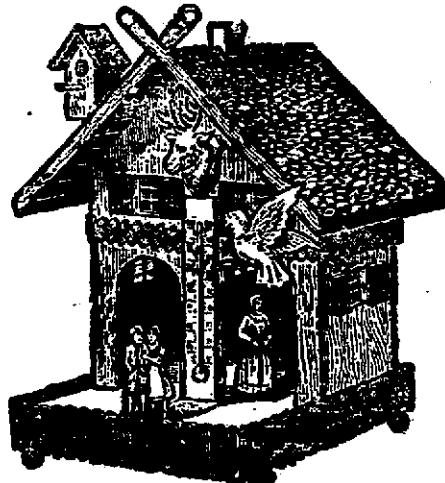

Zachary held the Tigers to two hits, both of them by Hanye and the Senators won 11 to 1.

Two scratch hits were all the Cards could get off Mitchell, the Phillies winning 6 to 0.

PRESIDENT GIVES ACCOUNT OF WORK

Mrs. Thomas G. Winter, President of Federation of Clubs For Four Years, Gives Report

TO RETIRE AFTER THIS YEAR

Her Administration Bequeaths to Following Administration a Problem Rather than an Accomplishment

Los Angeles, Calif., June 4—Mrs. Thomas G. Winter of Minneapolis, Minn., President of the Federation of Women's Clubs, made her report to the convention today. For four years Mrs. Winter has been the official head of the 2,500,000 women members of the organization. She retires after the present session.

The four years just ended Mrs. Winter said made the following contributions to Federation life:

1. The closer relation of state officers to each other and to the General Federation.
2. The increase in number of clubs in direct membership from two thousand to five thousand.
3. The movement toward universal membership made actual in fourteen states.
4. The reorganization of department work.
5. The democracy of the free news bulletin.
6. The purchase and equipping of headquarters.

7. Junior membership, organization and club institutes.

After reviewing in detail the accomplishments of the organization in its four years of her administration, Mrs. Winter concluded:

"But these contacts with things that are going on all over the country reflect back in a renewed confidence in the vital forces and in our own dominating influence, our potency, if we choose to avail ourselves of our chances for greatness."

"So the administration of 1920 to 1924 bequeaths to 1924 to 1926 a problem rather than an accomplishment but a problem with a mighty hope. We have been only a push-off May 1924 to 1928 fly where we have plodded!"

COUNCIL PLANS TO CHANGE CLASS

Continued from Page One following departments: Memorial park $13,989; city park $807.50 street improvement $1,536.46; water and light $8,122.12; general fund $25,753.23.

The city water and light plant will go out of the coal business, according to the council, who gave Supt. A. T. Mahin instructions last night to stop selling coal to individual consumers. Mayor Thomas stated that people do not appreciate a saving that the city tries to make, and that some of the people buy coal from city, and then in turn sign remonstrance against minor improvements.

One person in particular was discussed as having laid in his winter's coal at a big saving, from the city and was among the persons to sign the remonstrance against the city bond issue. "There are more ways than one to make those kind of people pay the bills," said Mayor Thomas, in ordering the superintendent not to sell coal from the water and light offices.

The council then jumped into the plan of changing the classification of the city, in which an additional expense of $7,000 a year in salaries will be entailed. All of the councilmen stated that they were ready to repeal all ordinances that had been passed concerning the classification, and that steps would be started to get into the fourth class, where the various boards are given more power to act.

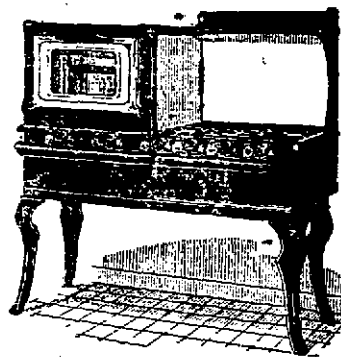

Mayor Thomas stated that the administration had done everything to lessen taxes, and has changed the classification from fourth to fifth class to save $7,000 a year, and that a stroke of the pen would have added that much to the tax list.

"People don't appreciate this saving," he said, "or they would not be offering protests against these small bond issues. The average taxpayer who signed that remonstrance will not notice any burden. If they feel like that, then you can count me in on changing the classification and we can lay our plans accordingly for the next meeting. It will be one step where the 'apple knocker' will not have any voice, except to pay the bill."

The Dill foundry was asked to submit prices on small traffic posts to fit over the man holes at street intersections, with a light in the base. The plan to be considered call for the small cylinders over the manholes, which do not obstruct the street cor-

RED STAR Vapor OIL STOVE

THE RED STAR is a marvelous advancement for homes without gas. It gives to these homes the same smokeless and odorless heat as does the city gas range. It is wickless, ashless and dirtless, because it generates its own gas from cheap kerosene, gasoline, or distillate—concentrating a double ring of heat directly beneath the cooking utensil and saving at least one-fourth of fuel bill. Operates 19 hours on a gallon of fuel.

The question of locating the Salvation army open air meetings on another corner on Saturday nights was left with the committee to consult with the local army captain. An order some time ago was issued calling for the meetings to assemble on the court house side of the square, instead of the bank corner.

Police were instructed to take positions at Second and Third streets in Main during busy hours, and to assist in directing the traffic at these points. The police also were directed to watch violators of the city dump ordinance, as it is said that many people are dumping rubbish in the roadway before the city dump is reached.

COMPROMISE ON THE KLAN PLANK

As a result of Ralston's stand, it is probable that the Indiana Delegation will go to the national convention officially uninstructed but ready to work for Ralston.

Ralston's closest political advisors believe the convention will turn to him after a deadlock has developed on other candidates and that it will be best for him not to be placed in the position of being an avowed candidate just yet.

Senator Ralston, Tom Taggart and other leaders of Indiana Democracy were in conference throughout the day planning for the convention.

Ralston discussed the party platform and particularly the Ku Klux Klan issue at a meeting of a dozen leaders last night, but refused to commit himself on the Klan issue.

More proposed planks have been offered on the subject of the Klan than on any other question, it was said. A determined effort was made to find a plank that will reconcile the hostile Klan and anti-Klan factions in the convention.

Democratic leaders say they are not trying to sidestep the issue, but that it would be against the principle of the party to pick out one organization to denounce in the platform.

The platform, it is understood, will probably call for a cooperative marketing plan and will not refer to the primary law.

An effort will be made to hold out a more promising program to draw the labor vote than was incorporated in the Republican platform.

There was intense activity around the headquarters of the eight candidates for governor today. Dr. Carleton McCulloch, plurality candidate in the primaries, still appeared to have the advantage.

Tom Taggart, who announced for McCulloch one time ago, was actively working in his behalf.

Other candidates, however, declared their prospects were good and that they would fight it out to a finish on the convention floor and let the best man win.

JUDGESHIP BILL COMES UP

Provides For Two Judges And One Federal District in Indiana

Washington, June 4—The senate judiciary committee has authorized Senator Shortridge to report out the bill providing an additional federal judgeship for Indiana. This measure is a substitute for the Hickey court bill which passed the house several months ago and which provided for cutting Indiana into two federal court districts.

Under the bill as reported, Indiana remains one judiciary district with seven seats of court and two federal judges. The court will sit in Indianapolis, Fort Wayne, South Bend, Hammond, Terre Haute, New Albany and Evansville.

The proposed legislation will involve an additional expense of approximately $20,000.

Logansport—Five veteran Pennsylvania employees' went on the honor roll June 1. They were all more than 65 years old.

Buy Now and Save!

No use expecting lower prices on ABC washers; they're priced as low now as they were in the beginning, but they are greatly improved in construction, of course.

Might as well buy one now and cut down your laundry expense; you can save enough each month to more than meet the payments.

See our display; we're always happy to demonstrate; no obligation to buy.

Electric Laundry

We'll even be glad to do your next washing free in your home, without obligation. Phone if you can't call.
